

New Arsenal Anthems

(by Gooners, for Gooners)

It's funny isn't it? We've got the best group of players we've ever had, and yet the level of support they get at Highbury is the worst it's ever been! No surprise then that our away support is so good, and so appreciated by the players on the pitch. Let's face it, the atmosphere at Highbury over the last few years has gone from poor to appalling. Yes it's embarrassing, but it can be changed; and it's up to us – the fans – to change it. The noise level isn't included in the price of the ticket, and the players out on the pitch need our support, so it's up to us to do something about it.

Have a look at these new Arsenal anthems that have been doing the rounds at away games recently, a couple of classics to add our extensive (!!) repertoire. Learn the words, and get singing the new songs. Be brave, you never know - some people might actually join in this time round, and if you're too shy (not drunk enough!) to start a song, make sure you join in when others around you are trying!

It's your club. It's your stadium. It's your experience. It's up to you.

For Le Boss...

(to the tune of "forever and ever, we'll follow our team...")

Oh Arsene Wenger
The Red n White King
The Gooner Messiah
The name that we sing

All over the country
All over the land
He's got man united's
Blood on his hands

THE ARSENAL ANTHEM (to the tune of "Jerusalem")

And did those boots of Arsenal's team
Walk upon Highbury's turf so green?
And did they play with great esteem
The best football we've ever seen?

And with a cannon on our chest
We play with heart, and mind, and zest
And we are proud to be Arsenal
In Victory Through Harmony

For the best player in the world...

(to the tune of "The First Noel")

IT'S TIME TO CROWN THE NEW KING

Thierry Henry
came to us from Turin,
Not sure about playing
up front or the wing,
Then Arsene had a word
and he said he was keen,
To make him the best striker
we've ever seen...

Thierry, Thierry, Thierry, Thierry
Born is the King of Highbury!

The Gooner ditty

(to the tune of the chorus to "Sloop John B"/I wanna go home, by the Beachboys)

Let me go home
I wanna go home
Well its N5 Highbury – oo!
I wanna go home!

The Old Classic...

(to the tune of, erm, Paddy?? Over and over and over again...)

B'Jesus said Paddy I sang it so well, I think I'll get up and I'll sing it again, so Paddy got up and he sang it again, Over and Over and Over again. B'Jesus said Paddy I sang it so well, I think I'll get up and I'll sing it again, so Paddy got up and he sang it again, Over and Over and Over again. B'Jesus said Paddy I sang it so well, I think I'll get up and I'll sing it again, so Paddy got up and he sang it again, Over and Over and Over again. B'Jesus said Paddy I sang it so well, I think I'll get up and I'll sing it again, so Paddy got up etc etc etc
